

CHILDREN'S INDEPENDENCE DAY MELA

Heritage Foundation organised a fun filled learning mela for the children of Moak Sharif and Hahsim Machi to celebrate Pakistan's Independence Day at both the villages. The program started with the national anthem sung by the children, followed by stories about the independence, Quaid-e-Azam and basic facts about Pakistan. The children were later quizzed based on what they learnt and the winners were given prizes. The rest of the day was spent by the children getting Pakistan's flag face painted, dancing and eating sweetmeats.

For many of them, if not all, this was the first time they celebrated 14th August, the Independence Day with the hope that this tradition shall continue for years to come.
